

CDC funded Centers for Public Health Preparedness (CPHPs)

Mission

To meet national preparedness goals by providing life-long learning opportunities to the public health workforce, in order to handle the next public health crisis.

Fifty-two CPHPs in U.S.

Upper Midwest Center for Public Health Preparedness

Located at the University of Iowa
College of Public Health

Serves

Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota

www.public-health.uiowa.edu/icphp/

Upper Midwest Center for Public Health Preparedness

Activities:

- Prepare Iowa Learning Management System
- Education and Training Advisory Committee (EdTrAC)
- Public Health Preparedness Train-the-Trainer
- Grand Rounds
- Distance Education Programs

www.public-health.uiowa.edu/icphp/

Upper Midwest Center for Public Health Preparedness

Activities continued:

- “Pandemic Influenza: Protecting Iowa’s First Responders” DVD
- UI Pandemic Influenza Preparedness Plan
- Cross Borders Roundtable
- Technical Assistance developing training plans
- Project Public Health Ready

www.public-health.uiowa.edu/icphp/

Upper Midwest Center for Public Health Preparedness

Partners

- Iowa Association of Local Public Health Agencies
- Iowa Department of Public Health
- Iowa Department of Public Safety
- Iowa Homeland Security and Emergency Management Division
- Iowa Hospital Association
- Iowa Medical Society
- Iowa Nurses' Association
- Iowa Pharmacy Association
- Iowa State University College of Veterinary Medicine
- Lincoln Lancaster County Health Department
- Nebraska Health & Human services System
- South Dakota Department of Health
- South Dakota State Medical Association
- South Dakota Association of Health care Organizations
- University of Nebraska Medical Center
- University Hygienic Laboratory
- University of South Dakota

www.public-health.uiowa.edu/icphp/

