CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

1st Annual Occupational Health and Safety Research Conference

Friday, April 1, 2016
University of Iowa College of Public Health Building
10:00 a.m. to 2:45 p.m.

Current doctoral students, postdoctoral candidates and other interested persons (i.e. recent graduates (2015) and pilot project grantees) are cordially invited to submit an abstract addressing occupational health and safety research.

The 1st Annual Occupational Health & Safety Research Conference will bring together graduate students, faculty and staff from the following Centers (all funded by the Centers of Disease Control & Prevention - CDC and/or the National Institute for Occupational Health & Safety – NIOSH):

- Heartland Center for Occupational Health and Safety
- Healthier Workforce Center for Excellence
- Great Plains Center for Agricultural Health
- Injury Prevention Research Center

The conference will consist of a keynote speaker, 6 short platform presentations (15 minutes each with 5 minutes for questions), and a poster session during lunch.

Abstract Submission Guidelines

1. Submit a 300 word abstract by 5 pm on March 1, 2016 to kevin-kelly@uiowa.edu.
2. Identify your preference of platform presentation, poster session, both platform presentation and poster session, if not selected for a platform presentation, willingness participate in poster session

Platform presentations and posters will be selected from submitted abstracts by a review committee from the above named Centers. Criteria for selection includes:

- research related to occupational health and safety (may include academic-related research, surveillance, or intervention projects)
- quality of abstract and description of information to be presented

Questions: contact Kevin Kelly at kevin-kelly@uiowa.edu or (319) 335-4755

Lunch will be provided by the College of Public Health’s Department of Occupational and Environmental Health.
