How to Create and Sustain a Culture of Safety

Friday, May 20, 2016
9 AM TO 4 PM
Wilsonville Holiday Inn,
25425 SW 95th Avenue, Wilsonville, OR

Oregon Institute of Occupational Health Sciences

Presents

How to Create and Sustain a Culture of Safety

Oregon Healthy Workforce Center (OHWC)
SafeBuild Alliance
PROGRAM OF EVENTS

Keynote: Measuring and Improving Safety Climate in Different Industries
Dov Zohar, Ph.D., Professor, William Davidson Faculty of Industrial Engineering and Management, Israel Institute of Technology

The Role of Management: Best Practices
Owner/leader panel (SafeBuild Alliance)

Measuring and Influencing Sleep in the Military: The impact of sleep behaviors on well-being and performance, and how we can change them
Matt LoPresti, Ph.D., Captain, Deputy Director at US Army Medical Research Directorate - West

Case Study: Building Engagement
Demetra Star, MS, Health and Safety Manager, Fortis Construction, Portland, OR

Culture Toolkits
TBA

Final Thoughts - Recommendations Q&A,
Panelists and Attendees

ONLINE REGISTRATION

http://tinyurl.com/j7q973e or
Scan the QR code

Registration fees
(includes breakfast, lunch, refreshments & parking):

$60 - By May 13, 2016 (register online)

$75 - Day of - register at the door

$30 - Reduced fee (Oregon governmental agencies - city/county/state; educational institutions; labor unions; companies with fewer than 25 employees; non-profit organizations; students) (register online)

$20 - Live webinar (register online)

Please note: Cancellation policy posted with online registration details (new).