

Student's Policies and Procedures

Policy on a Drug Free Environment

The College of Public Health subscribes to the University's drug free policy, which can be viewed at <http://opsmanual.uiowa.edu/community-policies/drug-free-environment>.

Policy on Student Academic Conduct Standards and Procedures

Standards of Academic Conduct

The faculty of the College of Public Health expects the conduct of a student registered or taking courses in the College to be consistent with that of a professional person. Courtesy, honesty, and respect should be shown by students toward faculty, guest lecturers, administrative support staff, and fellow students. Similarly, student should expect faculty to treat them fairly, showing respect for their ideas and opinions and striving to help them achieve maximum benefits from their experience in the College.

Academic Misconduct

If an enrolled student commits an act of academic misconduct and is subsequently subject to disciplinary action by the University, the graduate programs within the College of Public Health reserve the right to impose their own disciplinary action which can include, but is not limited to probation and/or dismissal from the program. All cases of academic misconduct should be reported to the Associate Dean for Education and Student Affairs.

(See "Required Syllabus Elements")

Additional Policies & Regulations Affecting Students

The following University of Iowa policies and regulations affecting students are established by the Division of Student Services and are on the web at <http://dos.uiowa.edu/policy-list/archives/2012-2013-policies-regulations-affecting-students-archived/?stage=Live>