Clinical Services Manager

Johnson County Public Health is seeking a Clinical Services Manager to join their leadership team. Responsibilities include managing staff and coordinating activities in the Women Infant Children and Maternal and Child Health Programs Division. Secure and administer program-related grants. Prepare division and program budgets and assist with Disaster Preparedness activities.

Master’s degree in nursing, nutrition, public health or other related field AND at least one (1) year of public health or related supervisory experience OR Bachelor’s degree in nursing, nutrition, public health or other related field OR R.N. with Bachelor’s degree in any field AND four (4) years of supervisory experience in public health or a related field.

Starting annual salary is $72,357 plus excellent benefits. To learn more about this position and to apply, please visit our website, www.johnson-county.com. Applications are accepted until 5:00 p.m., February 12, 2018. Resume and cover letter must be attached to online application.

AA/EOE