

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT TRAVEL GRANT GUIDELINES

UPDATED JANUARY 2019

PURPOSE

The Global Public Health Committee is committed to providing and expanding international opportunities for Public Health students at all levels in their education. The Global Public Health Travel Grant Awards are to be used for the express purpose of making non.-U.S. based experiences more accessible to students who wish to go abroad by providing funding assistance. This grant is intended for students pursuing a global experience outside of their home country and/or culture.

AWARD FUNCTION

This award provides students with assistance for non-U.S.based travel related needs.

STUDENT ELIGIBILITY

Students eligible to receive travel grant funding must meet the following minimum criteria:

- Students must be admitted to the College of Public Health and have at least junior standing.
- Student must be in good academic and disciplinary standing with the College of Public Health.
- Any student enrolled in the College of Public Health is eligible, including students in dual-degree programs.
- Students must be able to acquire a passport and all mandatory visa/travel documentation.
- Students be accepted into an approved global program and have approval to go abroad through the University of Iowa Study Abroad office.
- It is highly recommended that students complete the course CPH:3500 - Global Public Health before going abroad.

EDUCATIONAL COMPONENTS

To be eligible to receive an award, student's travel purpose must be related to their current educational goals. Furthermore, the intended outcome of their international experience must be related to their academic focus or area of study in Public Health. Students enrolled in dual-degree programs must demonstrate that public health will be the primary focus of their global activities. Eligible international educational experiences may include, but are not limited to:

- Course credit - Note: If applying for funding to take course credit abroad, students must demonstrate that cultural immersion will be significant and of educational value. Courses that are readily available domestically may be given lower priority for funding.
- Internships
- Experiential learning opportunities

ELIGIBLE EXPENSES

Expenses that are eligible to be covered are those related to travel and living expenses. Students will be asked to provide an itemized budget containing all projected costs for the committee to review. If multiple sources of funding or scholarship will be used, all sources and their monetary contributions must be identified to the committee. Students are encouraged to use the CPH Travel Grant in conjunction with other awards as needed. The projected budget will be used to identify how much funding will be allocated to each student. Eligible items include, but are not limited to:

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT TRAVEL GRANT GUIDELINES

UPDATED JANUARY 2019

- Housing
- Airfare/other transportation
- International Insurance (as required by the University of Iowa)
- University of Iowa study abroad fee
- Daily Living expenses
- Passport/Visa expenses

AWARD AMOUNTS

Travel grant awards are for amounts up to but not exceeding $3000. Award amounts will vary based on the committee's assessment of need and eligible expenses. Award amounts will vary and this funding determination will be made at the discretion of the global health committee. Students should disclose all other scholarships funding sources or in-progress scholarship applications when applying.

TRAVEL CHANGES AND LIMITATIONS

If travel purposes change, the student must inform the global health committee immediately. The global health committee reserves the right to reevaluate or withdraw funding in the event that the new travel purpose does not meet the requirements for grant eligibility.

- In the event that the intended trip is cancelled or changed to an ineligible format and travel grant funding has already been disbursed, the student will be expected to return the full amount of the award.
- Students who are approved for travel grant funding but leave the college without completing a degree before using their designated funds will forfeit their award immediately.
- Travel must occur during a period in which the student is enrolled at the University of Iowa. Travel funds may not be used after graduation.

This grant is intended for students interested in a non-U.S. based global experience outside of their home country and/or culture. Non-U.S. travel that does not match this criterion will be considered on a case-by-case basis.